

Absolut Gräpe

Introduced in January 2012, Absolut Gräpe is the latest flavor in the Absolut family. Absolut Gräpe is incredibly easy to mix and is made from all-natural ingredients and contains no sugar. The combination of white grape, dragon fruit and papaya makes Absolut Gräpe so multi-dimensional, that you can make a sophisticated drink just by adding one ingredient.

Absolut Gräpe is made exclusively from natural ingredients, and unlike most other flavored vodkas, it doesn't contain any added sugar. Absolut Gräpe is smooth and fresh with floral notes of white grapes and subtle fruitiness of Dragon fruit and Papaya.

Gräpe was renamed from Gräpevine when the bottle was redesigned in 2013, however the vodka remains the same great flavor.
